WRITING

Creative Writing

Aspiring writers meet weekly to create, share, critique and perfect their works. The group offers a supportive and non-threatening way to learn how to improve your writing skills.

Highland • Room 1 Thursday, 1:00 − 3:00 pm

TGIF Poetry

This small, ongoing group is devoted to reading and writing poetry. If this is something you would enjoy, please see the instructor.

Bear Canyon ● Room 3 1st and 3rd Friday, 1:00 – 3:00 pm

Writing Fiction, Non-Fiction and Poetry

This class will be a combination of teaching and reviewing student's work. All forms of writing will be explored, including fiction, non-fiction, memoirs and poetry. New students are welcome at any time.

Bear Canyon • Room 1 Monday, 3:00 – 5:00 pm Larry Greenly & Rob Spiegel

Writing For Fun and Profit

This group has joined together for mutual benefit, interests and encouragement. It consists of amateurs and professionals who are poets, journalists, novelists and short story writers. Most of the writings are of the inspirational type. Those interested in writing are invited to join.

Manzano Mesa Multigenerational Center • Room 1 Monday, 1:00 – 3:00 pm

Writing Your Autobiography

Everyone has a story to tell. This ongoing workshop is based on your own personal experiences and includes short writings about particular events in one's life. People who are interested in writing their life stories are welcome at any time. Life experiences are valuable; they do not deserve to be lost when we are gone. New students are welcome to join any time.

Bear Canyon • Room 4 February 5 – April 15 Tuesday, 8:30 – 10:45 am Suzanne Clear
